

DEBT MANAGEMENT

If this is you...

- ✗ Many of your customers are not paying their accounts promptly
- ✗ You dislike calling your customers to follow-up on payments
- ✗ You don't have the time and staff to recover your overdue accounts
- ✗ You want the money but you don't want to upset your customers by referring your overdue accounts to a collection agency.

...PRUSHKA DEBT MANAGEMENT is the answer!

PRUSHKA DEBT MANAGEMENT CAN HELP YOU HELP YOUR BUSINESS

Prushka Debt Management provides you with the opportunity to outsource your collection function to a debt collection agency, without compromising your relationship with your customers. This service is operated by the Prushka Commercial Team, which has huge knowledge and experience in recovering debts of any nature.

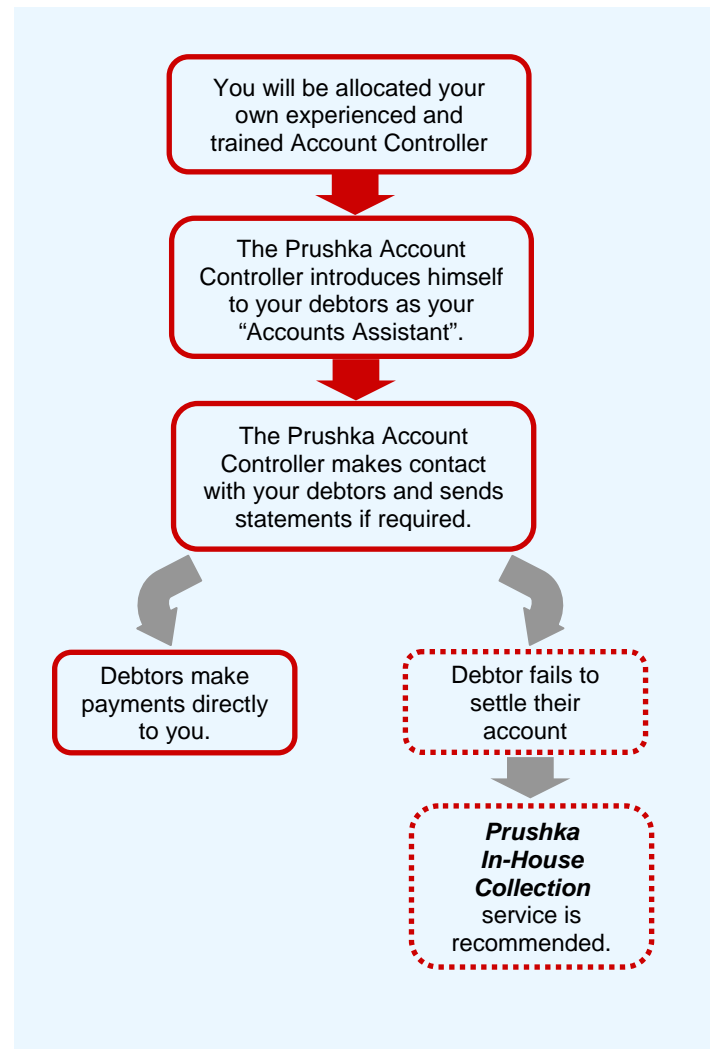

A process will be agreed to with you, involving Prushka sending out client statements and performing the same role as your own accounts person, either at your office or ours.

Prushka understands that customers are the essence of your business and for that reason, our Account Controllers are highly trained to use sophisticated negotiation techniques. Prushka Account Controllers will also contact your debtors as if they were your staff member, not only to effect payment, but also to ensure that your relationship with your customers is maintained.

With Prushka Debt Management you are assured of professionalism, the best quality service and great results.

In the event when the debtor fails to settle his account, the Prushka Account Controller will advise you of the recommended steps to place further pressure on the debtor.
