

“No recovery – No Charge”

With our “No Recovery - No Charge” service there are no hidden costs or fees. Our commission includes letters, phone calls, field calls (in selected areas and when appropriate), skip tracing (when applicable), client reporting and even dishonoured cheque fees from debtors.

Dedicated Client Services Team

We have a dedicated Client Services Team totally focused on handling the specific needs, questions and comments of our clients.

Recognised name synonymous with achieving results

We receive a lot of positive coverage in the media. This includes professional commentary from the CEO and senior managers on current economic issues and events.

Prushka’s opinion is highly regarded in the areas of debt collection, national debt levels (including consumer debt, business debt, small business debt and credit card debt), mortgage defaults, interest rates, and inflation.

All correspondence to debtors comes from our fully integrated law firm, Mendelsons National Debt Collection lawyers. This name is familiar to many debtors and late payers. Mendelsons has the expertise to carry a matter right through to legal action and enforcement. The debtors receiving correspondence from Mendelsons know that such a matter requires their urgent attention.

Expert collection staff

Our team of expert collection staff receive comprehensive and ongoing training from professional trainers covering relevant codes, legislation and industry best practice.

As a result, well over 90% of files are settled or concluded prior to legal action.

Specialist Pre-legal Team

For debts that may require legal action, we have a specialist Pre-legal Team that is able to discuss your potential legal files with you and help choose the best course of action. This is done with the goal of maximising your chances of recovery.

Fully integrated law firm

Mendelsons National Debt Collection Lawyers are able to take legal action Australia-wide without the use of subcontractors.

Our “Fixed-Price, Fully Inclusive Legal Action Service” ensures that legal costs will not blow out.

Result-oriented enforcement actions are available on judgments, including bankruptcy and seizure & sale.
